County of _____, State of South Carolina, the undersigned parties hereby agree that the said Agreement to Buy and Sell shall be subject to the following provisions (check all that apply):

- CONFIDENTIALITY: All financial data and other proprietary information with regard to the terms of the offer to purchase or other sales agreement concerning the above referenced property shall be treated as confidential by Buyer and Seller and shall be disseminated to third parties on a "need to know" basis only. Upon the termination or completion of this agreement, Broker shall keep confidential all information received during the course of this agreement, which was made confidential by written request or instructions from the client, except as provided for under South Carolina law.

- SOIL & WATER TESTS: Upon acceptance of this agreement, Buyer shall have the right to go upon the property to conduct soil and water tests, including percolation tests, to ascertain whether the property is suitable for the improvements which Buyer proposes to make. All expenses of such tests shall be borne by the _____ and Buyer shall be responsible for the repair and restoration of any damage to the property which may be caused by such tests. If in the opinion of the engineer, employed by Buyer, the property is not suitable for the proposed improvements, this agreement at the option of the Buyer, may be terminated and all deposits shall be refunded. Buyer shall be deemed to have waived this condition unless written notice to the contrary is delivered to Seller or Seller's agent within _____ days of acceptance.

- SURVEY: Upon acceptance of this offer, the property shall be surveyed by a licensed surveyor at the expense of _____. The surveyor shall set and flag all property pins, showing encroachments and easements. Property must be ___ x ___ or having at least _____ acres. The survey is to be approved in writing by Buyer prior to close of escrow. The purchase price is based upon $ _____ per _____ (acre, sq. ft., or front ft.) and shall be adjusted in accordance with the area set forth in such a survey, if applicable.

- BACK-UP CLAUSE: This offer, if accepted by all parties, will be considered a back-up contract (non-primary). It is contingent upon all presently pending contracts not closing since if any presently pending contracts do close, this contract will become null and void. If this contract does not become the primary pending contract by _____, regardless of the status of other pending contracts, this contract will become null and void with no further actions necessary by either party. If this contract becomes null and void, the Buyer's earnest money will be refunded immediately in full. Any back-up contract will become a primary contract when its earliest date of fully negotiated terms is the earliest date of all pending contracts and all previously dated contracts have become null and void, unenforceable and/or released. If this offer becomes primary, Buyer has _____ days to complete the transaction.

- "AS IS" CLAUSE: Each undersigned Buyer hereby expressly acknowledges and accepts that they are buying this property strictly "as is" with no warranties implied, expressed or written. This includes personal and real property included as a part of this sale. Buyers should require expert inspections before obligating themselves to purchase, since there may be concealed defects not evident by a casual inspection.

- DEED RESTRICTIONS AND RESTRICTED COVENANTS: Seller to provide copy of any deed restrictions (including zoning ordinances, condominium documents, [i.e. master deed, bylaws, or financial information]) and a copy of all restrictions and covenants for said property upon acceptance of this offer within _____ days and this contract is contingent upon Buyer's approval of same by or within 5 working days from the time Seller delivers same to Buyer.

linoleum, floor tiles, and plaster. Due to current or prior uses, the Property or improvements may contain materials such as metals, minerals, chemicals, hydrocarbons, biological or radioactive materials, and other substances which are considered, or in the future may be determined to be, toxic wastes, hazardous materials, or undesirable substances. Such substances may be in above and below ground containers on the Property or may be present on or in soils, water, building components, or other portions of the Property in areas that may or may not be accessible or noticeable.

Current and future federal, state, and local laws and regulations may require the clean-up of such toxic, hazardous, or undesirable materials at the expense of those persons who in the past, present, or future have had any interest in the Property including, but not limited to, current, past, and future owners and users of the Property. Sellers and Buyers are advised to consult with independent legal counsel of their choice to determine their potential liability with respect to toxic, hazardous, or undesirable materials they may wish to include in purchase and sales agreements, leases, options, and other legal documentation related to transactions they contemplate entering into with respect to the Property.

The real estate salespersons and brokers in this transaction have no expertise with respect to toxic wastes, hazardous materials, or undesirable substances. Property inspections of the Property by qualified experts are an absolute necessity to determine whether or not there are any current or potential toxic wastes, hazardous materials, or undesirable substances in or on the Property.

The real estate salespersons and brokers in this transaction have not made, nor will make representations, either express or implied, regarding the existence or non-existence of toxic wastes hazardous materials, or undesirable substances in or on the Property. Problems involving toxic wastes, hazardous materials, or undesirable substances can be extremely costly to correct. It is the responsibility of Sellers and Buyers to retain qualified experts to deal with the detection and correction of such matters.
